INTRODUCTION OF UNIVERSITY OF EDUCATION LAHORE

The University of Education was established in 2002 as the highest seat of learning in teacher education with clear goals and objectives of producing quality teachers of international standards. Among other related objectives set before the UE, some are to:

- Bring quality change in education focusing on teacher education.
- Promote governance, leadership and management skills among educational managers.
- Promote teaching and learning innovations.
- Develop human resource for educational institutions and other areas of high social and economic need.
- Establish linkages with national and international educational institutions and the society.

The University of Education campuses, divisions and affiliated colleges are striving to achieve high standards of success through innovation, creativity and forward looking strategies.

UE designed curriculum and established instructional and media laboratories to provide opportunity to its students and faculty of experimental and experiential learning. This encouraged and enhanced conceptual learning and application. The media laboratories serve as modern gadget to access the virtual material for learning and research by students and faculty of the University.

In addition to offering degree programs, the UE adopts multi pronged strategies like faculty development through holding workshops, seminars, short and advanced courses. Postgraduate Diploma and Teaching Certificate for faculty needs a special mention. This program focuses on capacity development of the faculty in response to the emerging needs of the time. Foreign scholarships are also awarded to attract the best available talent for faculty.

For harmonious and all round growth and development of students' personalities and character building, sports and other co-curricular activities such as debates, speeches, dramas, art exhibitions and other healthy activities are organized regularly. Students are motivated to learn the art of peaceful co-existence and finding solutions to the problems through dialogues and discussions. Due to such initiatives significant changes could be observed in the outlook and behavior of the students. It is due to these earnest efforts, meticulous diligence and untiring strife that UE graduates are fitting in well at home and abroad in the system as well as in the employment market which indeed is a matter of pride for UE.

MESSAGE FROM THE FOUNDER

I firmly believe that a planned social change, which is deep and broad yet sustainable, can only be cultivated through a consistent and effective delivery of good education to the masses. This in turn can only be ensured by well prepared and committed educationists whether in the roles of teachers, administrators, content developers or policymakers. The University of Education has the unique responsibility to produce, and maintain a steady supply of, such capable professionals. Therefore, we commit ourselves to advance the study and practice of education including excellence in the allied knowledge areas and to develop comprehension of the interactions between them. While endeavoring to fulfill this commitment we emphasize on creating a culture where the future educationists learn and practice what they are supposed to demonstrate in terms of values & virtues as well as the abilities & attitudes, hence, we set our objectives as:

1. To study and practice contemporary theories, methods, technologies and mediums of teaching/learning and to prepare personnel for a variety of professional roles in the field of education.
2. To develop adaptations of the latest knowledge to local environment in terms of economy, culture, religion, languages or any other relevant parameters and at the same time conduct indigenous research in order to effectively contribute to the body of knowledge in the areas related with educational needs, practices and issues.
3. To participate in and contribute to the matters like educational policy, curriculum design & development, teaching/learning materials development, educational attainment standards, education delivery mechanisms and development of educational organizations etc.
4. To develop collaborative linkages with and provide support to local, provincial, national and international agencies mandated with provision, regulation and/or promotion of education and related services.

University of Education, though established in 2002, has a long history of excellence and service. The oldest of its constituent campuses, the Lower Mall Campus, had initiated its operations in 1880 while the Bank Road Campus was established in 1933. These institutions have, over their life, produced hundreds of thousands of capable educationists who have enlightened generations across the sub-continent and abroad. The rich history and legacy of these institutions remains our inspiration and we continue the pursuit of excellence with full vigor.

INTRODUCTION OF ZAIN COLLEGE

Zain College Bhakkar first college based on education modern information and communication technologies was established in 2010 in private sector not for profit mission to provide extremely affordable class education to aspiring students all over the district. It was established due to the lack of education in district Bhakkar. It is situated in the heart of city Bhakkar of Punjab Province in Pakistan. It lies on the left of Bank of the Indus River. The population of the Bhakkar city is 300000 and was given status of District in 1982.

Bhakkar city is also the administrative centre of District Bhakkar. Bhakkar District has four tehsils and Bhakkar Tehsil is Subdivided into 17 union councils, three of which from city of Bhakkar. History of Bhakkar was very old, someone says, that the original name was Bhakkar and with the passage of time it became Bhakkar.

Bhakkar's famous souvenir is Karna Oil, which is essence of the Karna Flower. Chana is the major crop.

The Historical places in District Bhakkar are Dilkusha Bagh, which was planted by "Mughal Badshah".

The famous religious places of District Bhakkar are Qasr e Zainab, Darbar Sufi Sardar Bakhsh in Bhakkar city and Hindu's Mandar in Tehsil Mankera.

Mankera is the largest tehsil of Punjab and Bhakkar is the neglected district of Southern Punjab was no higher education institution of education in district. Due to that reason Zain College took step and got affiliation in professional courses with Department of education Sargodha in 2010. However Zain Group of colleges started Department of Law in 2015 for the better interest of students and great output of society and also with the view of making academic needs of students in the area, college took steps and got affiliation in Masters Programs with Department of (Health and Physical education, Social Work, English, Economics, Sociology, Phycology and Pak Studies) with UOS in 2011 and college disaffiliated itself from University of Sargodha and after that college got affiliation form the University in various subjects (Science and Arts). Zain College is working to enhance the quality of education in District. The education institution, Zain College blends a premium faculty, supported by the best teaching aids. Zain College has a highly qualified faculty with vast experience and impeccable professional reputations. A highly conducive environment is provided for learning. Teaching classes using multimedia and allied facilities are well morns of Zain College.

Computer Laboratories are fully equipped with latest state-of-the-art equipment, latest computers and internet facilities.

Library is well stocked with paper and books numbering to nearly 4000. Allied facilities are ensured to create an environment for joyful learning.

MESSAGE OF DIRECTOR.

Welcome to Zain College. The Zain College has been committed for the cause of education to our nation's youth for over 10 years in the largest group of colleges in private sector in District Bhakkar. Our experience and excellence has been proven through our student's allurements. The aim of Zain College is to produce the job creators not the job seekers by entrepreneurial mindset. Our focus on academic excellence and graduate employability has given us a strong professional orientation. Our vision has been our strength all through leading position in the fraternity.

I have always believed in Allah's oneness and his messages have always inspired me. "Man gets whatever he strives for" has been my guiding force. I pay compliment to my father Mr. Prof Mushtaq Ahmad Awan who is my real hero, he taught me to live life of lion, who is also the founder of this group and it shows his curiosity and fond of education for this remote area of Punjab (District Bhakkar)

We try to develop each student maximum potential by providing not only the latest teaching method and technology, but also individual guidance and assistance with the latest Labs, Computers and well stocked Libraries. We pay attention for the grooming of personality of the students.

We give our students goals the need to grow into competent, skilled and fully assured professionals. Zain College have an experienced, highly qualified dedicated faculty, we focus our passion and focused on our dreams. I assure you that your educational experience at our institution will be a rewarding one, both academically and culturally.

Dr. Zain Ahmad Malik.
Director

MESSAGE OF PRINCIPAL

In the era of clashes among civilizations and interests, where we are desperately seeking ways to attain contentment and prosperity, there the concept of prevailing peace looms largely only through the glint of Pen and not of sword.

Education has been playing the overriding role in the history of mankind but the meaning and purpose of educations has been made complex deliberately. To understand the purpose of education sadly lies beyond the understanding of a common man while as the first purpose of education is to develop the sense of understanding among the mankind. It is unfortunate that most of the higher institutes are retaining the waxing problem of actually making developed mind but undeveloped heart. These developed minds and undeveloped hearts later on command and control different fields of life with their developed minds and no hearts pursuit of knowledge by a noble heart and mind.

Tomorrow is your future; it's near, very near; so you decided, the choice is yours! Do you want to be among those who just want to earn a degree? If yes! Then we don't enjoy any relation with you at Zain College. But if you want to be among those who are learning with sterling credentials, then you are welcome to Zain College. You are always welcome to, step into Bright Future.
